

Stop losing great people—and productivity—from ineffective managers. Develop exceptional managers your people will actually want to work for, with PI Inspire.

Employees don't leave companies; they leave managers. PI Inspire makes it easy for your managers to personalize their leadership approach to each direct report—so they develop, motivate, and retain top-notch people at scale.

Create a culture where everyone knows, and taps into, their unique strengths every day.

Just like other assessments, PI gives your people an extremely accurate insight into their strengths, caution areas, and needs at work. But most assessments take way too long, are difficult to understand, and don't lead to meaningful action. That's where PI is different. The PI Behavioral Assessment takes only 6 minutes to complete, provides straightforward results, and tells your managers how to apply the learnings in their day-to-day. This means our 10,000+ customers have no problem adopting it and seeing results right away.

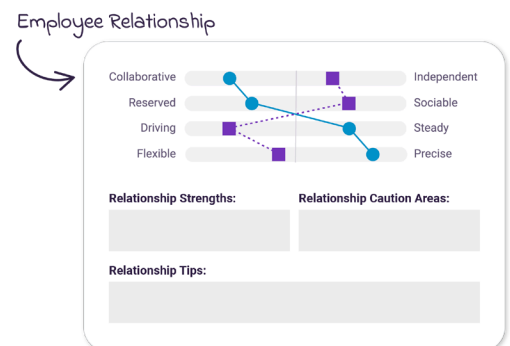

Help your managers—new and old—know exactly how to coach, develop, motivate each direct report.

Have you ever had a manager you just clicked with? PI Inspire gives your managers spot-on insights—the moment they need it—to bring out the best of everyone on their team. Managers will keep coming back to insights that are easy to understand and implement.

End toxic and time-consuming conflict with powerful relationship tips for any two people.

No two people are the same, and differences can quickly snowball into blame, gossip, and mistrust in the workplace. PI gives your people an objective language to empathize, understand, and work through issues with each other, instantly. With the Relationship Guide, you'll get science-backed relationship tips that help colleagues work better together—based on their personalities. Our clients tell us the insights make it much easier to act as an objective third-party and build relationships that get results.
